

Weber Instruments Limited Warranty

Congratulations on your new purchase, and thank you for your interest in Weber Instruments. It is our goal to produce the highest quality guitars that we can possibly build. However, should you have any issues with the performance of your Weber guitar, please refer to the following document for warranty information.

What does this limited warranty cover?

It covers any defects in material or workmanship under normal use during the warranty period. During this period, Weber Instruments will repair or replace, at no charge, parts of a product that prove defective because of improper materials or workmanship, under normal use and maintenance.

How long does the coverage last?

The warranty period for a Weber guitar purchased from Weber Instruments is 5 years from the original date of purchase. Any replacement part, or labor for repairs, assumes the remaining warranty of the original guitar.

What does the limited warranty not cover?

The limited warranty does not cover any problem that is caused by: unsuitable conditions for the instrument, abuse, normal wear and tear or any malfunctions or damage not resulting from defects in materials or workmanship. The warranty does not apply to the case, strings or accessories provided with the guitar at the date of purchase.

What should you do in the event of a problem?

To obtain warranty service, please contact us to determine the problem and the most appropriate solution for you. Application of the warranty is solely at the discretion of Weber Instruments, but we are very fair in our approach and we will be happy to do all that we can to rectify the issue.
